

vDSMH - EAMDR Forum on "Reprocessing of highly complex medical devices"
28 November 2008
Artemis Hotel, Amsterdam

Agenda

- 09:30 Reception & coffee
- 10:00 Welcome address
(Diana Bijl, vDSMH / Nikou Ghassemieh, EAMDR)
- 10:20 Introduction to the topic -
History of reprocessing
(Philip de Vries, UMCU)
- 10:35 Reprocessing of highly complex medical devices -
What are the differences in reprocessing of reusable and disposable medical devices?
(Nikou Ghassemieh, Vanguard AG)
- 11:05 Reprocessing of highly complex medical devices and quality aspects in relation with the Medical Device Directive
(Kerstin Klosz, Vanguard AG)
- 11:50 Validated reprocessing of medical devices -
Biological, physical and chemical safety
(Prof. Gerhard Hücker, HS System- und Prozesstechnik GmbH)
- 12:20 Lunch break
- 13:30 Reprocessing in practice -
Experience from the field, what is possible and what is not possible
(Matthias Tschoerner, Vanguard AG)
- 14:15 Developments in cleaning complex instruments
(Lawrence Dawson, Medisafe International)
- 14:45 Coffee break
- 15:10 Classification of medical devices in relation with reprocessing
(Christiaan Meijer, Vanguard AG)
- 15:30 Tips and tools for the future
(Ton Boks, Logi Ster BV)
- 15:50 Which lessons can we learn?
(Gillian Sills, IDSc)
- 16:15 Discussion
- 16:30 End of the meeting